

I depend on the traffic reports that I get from XM Radio. They are repeated every 3 minutes, which is far more frequent than any other station. Also, there is much more information which is updated frequently. In the interests of keeping the traffic flowing, I consider XM's traffic service extremely useful. Since I PAY for this service, I should have the right to continue getting it.